The Ladies Social Union of the Congregational church will meet at the home of Mrs. J. E. McCarten on Thursday, March 3, at 2:30. Mrs. McCarten and Mrs. Dodge, hostesses. All ladies of the church together with their friends are invited.

Mrs. Dell Tibbetts and daughter, Miss Mae, who have been enjoying a vacation from their duties in the millinery department of the Gilman Co. store during which time they have visited the Boston and New York markets, returned home Saturday night and returned to their work Monday.

Last Thursday evening eighteen members of the Christian Endeavor society of the Congregational church enjoyed a straw ride to Derby center and attended the Christian Endeavor meeting at that place. A very enjoyable time was the result. The trip was made in two teams furnished by Arthur Wells. Many of the music lovers of our city will remember Nedelka Simeonova, the wonderful Bulgarian girl violinist, who gave a recital at the Congregational church some four or five years ago. All those who heard her then wondered if they would ever be privileged to hear her again. She is now in this country after four years study abroad and it is expected that she will again appear in Newport.

Alfred Elsner, former manager of the Atlantic and Pacific store, now assistant superintendent of a chain of stores, with headquarters at Rutland, spent the week-end visiting friends in town.

Hazel Dow Rossier

Funeral services of Mrs. Hazel Dow Rossier were held at the late home in Newport Ctr. Sunday p.m. at 1 o'clock. The Rev. G. H. Chamberlain, pastor of the Baptist church officiating with prayer by Rev. Charles Morse. The services were largely attended by relatives and friends from Newport town also Newport city, Orleans and Coventry where the deceased was well known.

The floral tributes were profuse and beautiful and testified to a large circle of friends, they also brought messages of love and sympathy to the family circle which were so suddenly called to part with their loved one.

The body was taken to Coventry for burial, four brothers acting as bearers, Forest, Sumner and Harold Dow and Harvey Rossier.

Hazel Rossier was the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dow, born in Coventry, May 1, 1891.

She received her education in the district school in Coventry and later attended the Newport High School.

Prior to her marriage she was employed as operator for the People's Telephone Co. On March 24, 1910 she was united in marriage to J. D. Rossier and for the past few years had lived at Newport Center. This union was blessed with the birth of two sons, Robert aged 9 and Richard aged 5 years.

Mrs. Rossier was a member of the Baptist church of Newport Center, and at one time was a member of the Memphremagog Grange.

She leaves to mourn her death her husband, J. D. Rossier, and two sons, Robert and Richard, mother, Mrs. Wm. Dow, one sister, Mrs. Clinton Wood of Newport; three brothers, Harold Dow of Newport Ctr., Sumner Dow of New York and Forest of Richmond, N. Y.

Her death, which occurred at the Dr. Cleasby hospital, in the early hours of Thursday morning, following a serious operation on Monday, was a shock to her many friends, also to the family circle as it was thought she was doing nicely up to the night of her death, but a sudden change for the worse took place soon after midnight and her life passed over the river whence none ever return.

Among those from out of town who attended the funeral were: Sumner and Forest Dow of New York; Dorothy Wood of the U. V. M., Burlington; Mrs. Lottie Clough of Barton; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clough of Irasburg; Mrs. Nettie Hinkley and two children Marjorie and Herman, of Glover; Mr. and Mrs. Orin Bliss of Swanton; O. W. Lock, Mrs. Gilbert Gross, Frank Gray and Mrs. Claude Whitmore of Orleans; Mrs. Sam Standish, John Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Niles and Carroll Dow of Coventry; those from Newport city were Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Wood and son Roger, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Hancock, I. O. Sessions, Mrs. Abid Niles and son, George, and Mrs. Alice Burgoyne.

When a man says he is "rushed to death" with business, it generally means he is merely excited, but when a woman says she is "rushed to death" with her housework, she is.

American Legion Activities

The Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion passed the middle of February and was still going forward at the rate of more than fifty units a week. Meanwhile the Legion is gaining at the rate of approximately thirty posts a week, with a total of 10,143 posts.

The Minnesota Department of the Legion, with 149 units, has now displaced the Massachusetts Auxiliary for leadership. Massachusetts is second; then follow New York, and Pennsylvania.

In percentage of gain within the last three weeks, the Ohio Department leads the Legion, Missouri, Texas, Illinois and Oklahoma follow in relative order.

By arrangement between the American Legion and Bureau of Commercial Economics, the most complete and valuable collection of educational and travel motion picture films in existence will be placed at the disposal of the Legion posts for free exhibition. Legion members will order films from catalogues which will be sent to all Legion posts. The films will be sent from a number of distributing centers, which will be designated in the catalogue. One thousand separate topics are embraced in the films, which have been taken in all parts of the world.

An American Legion button stopped a bullet, which struck Glimona Scala, a Legionnaire of Newark, N. J., and probably saved his life. Scala was an innocent bystander at a dispute between four men during which the gun play started.

Wearing his army gas mask, the Rev. F. W. Smith, commander of Ray Stone Post of the American Legion at Shrewsbury, Mass., braved the smoke and flames of a fire in the town hall to rescue two American flags from post headquarters room. Clutching the flags, he groped his way back through the halls, feeling his way out by a string that he had tied to the back door on entering the building. Rev. Mr. Smith served as a chaplain with the Canadian Black Watch.

An ex-service man with eight bars on his Victory medal has been enrolled by Argonne Post of the American Legion at Des Moines, Ia., in a membership campaign. George Leander, the embryonic Legionnaire, was with a supply train attached to the Mallet Reserve of the French Army. He took part in the Somme offensive, Aisne, Montdidier, Noyon, Champagne-Marne, Aisne-Marne, Somme and Oise-Aisne offensives and also served in a defensive sector.

Foreign posts of the American Legion have been asked to cooperate with the Federal Board for Vocational Education in carrying out a system whereby American veterans in France, England, Italy and Belgium are to be provided with vocational training. The plan is based upon a reciprocal agreement between this country and the four allied countries, under which they are to train disabled ex-service men in our own, each nation paying a stipulated sum for each veteran so trained.

The first convention of the Women's Auxiliary of the Virginia Department of the American Legion will be held May 13 and 14, it was decided at a meeting of the Legion's state executive committee. More than 1,100 new members were obtained for the Legion in Virginia between January 1 and February 12.

Player pianos, phonographs, desks and Shetland ponies are among the prizes in a membership contest which the Texas Department of the American Legion has started. Posts will be graded on the proportion of number of members obtained to the population of the community.

The Women's Auxiliary unit of Murphy-Major-Sloan Post No. 284 of the American Legion at Atchison, Kan., is the first colored auxiliary in Kansas and one of the first to be organized in the country.

Job applicants and employers are listed in a card index, according to their abilities and needs by Nashville, Tenn., Post of the American Legion, which has been successful in obtaining employment for many ex-service men.

Backed by the American Legion organization of the state, a bill providing for exemption from payment of taxes by veterans has been passed by the Wyoming legislature. All ex-service men in the state, whether or not they enlisted from Wyoming, will benefit from the bill.

Essay contests on the subject of Lincoln's Gettysburg address and the application of Washington's Farewell Address to present-day conditions in America were held in Spokane, Wash., high schools by Spokane Post of the American Legion, which rewarded the winners with prizes.

The latest indorsement of the American Legion by a labor organization came from Nevada, where C. W. Farrington, state organizer of the American Federation of Labor, and a number of labor leaders pledged the cooperation of their organization with the Legion in its fight against radicalism.

WEST CHARLESTON

John Smith has bought the Nathan Allen place.

Oliver Magoon of North Troy has been visiting at Frank Panfaw's.

Mrs. Amy Crawford returned home Saturday.

Dale Eastman of Tilton, N. H., has been home for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gee are back in their tenement after being in New Hampshire for a few months.

Norman Willey of Newport, N. H., is visiting his children and other relatives here.

Mrs. Cephas Dupont of Greensboro has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Kinne.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Rice and daughter of Orleans were in town last week. Mrs. Rice and daughter spent several days with friends.

The C. E. social proved a success and all attending had a very enjoyable time. The program was very nicely carried out. G. L. Kinne had charge of the sugar.

Prospect Pomona Grange in Newport March 9.

Prospect Pomona Grange is invited to meet with Memphremagog Grange at their hall in Newport on Wednesday, March 9. As usual, all the members are urged to be present. Memphremagog Grange meets in regular session that evening and all members of Pomona who stay over until the late train will find in that meeting pleasant and profitable entertainment.

E. W. SAVAGE ELECTED

MAYOR OF NEWPORT CITY

Polls Opened Early With Voters Out in Large Numbers for Annual Meeting

The voters were out in good numbers for the city election at school hall, this morning, the polls opening at 9 o'clock.

E. W. Savage was elected mayor. C. S. Emery then nominated B. W. Wilcox alderman for two years, and he was unanimously elected. Carroll Huntington nominated J. C. Oakley alderman for two years and he was also unanimously elected. C. A. Brown placed in nomination the name of H. W. Bernard to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Savage. John Harper nominated John Mulcahy and A. H. Griggs nominated Joel Ely. Mr. Ely withdrew his name and Mr. Bernard was elected.

Queer Word Explained.
The real derivation of the word "esquire" is, as everyone will remember, from "escayer," old French for "shieldbearer," and so came to be applied to the chief retainers of knights. When the feudal days passed the word remained.

The reward of hustling is more hustling.

HOW DO YOU KNOW?

"My eyes are strong. I can read anything," is the boast of many suffering from a form of eyestrain which, if permitted to go unchecked, develops into a serious case of poor vision. An optical specialist can tell when you need glasses. Have us examine your eyes regularly and take no chances.

NEWPORT BAKERY

and for the Kiddies—Bread

Romp, play and study demand lots of substantial food—BREAD!

When the kiddies say they're "so hungry" give them hearty slices of Buttered-bread, spread with jam, marmalade or honey, and satisfy their natural craving for sweets. Bread and milk should be a regular dish at the children's table. That's just the same as giving the kiddies plenty of bone, muscle and energy.

Lucky Bread

— is the loaf real goodness—made of real flour, good shortening, pure sugar, and a big measure of compressed yeast.
